- † November Birthdays

We spent the last few weeks reviewing our mission statement: Honor God’s Truth, Share the Gospel, Build Believers, and Care for Others. Are we ready to fulfill the mission in Acts 2:42-47? Are we equipped to fulfill the mission? On Sunday, October 25th I encouraged our congregation to begin a time of assessment. This will be a time to evaluate many aspects of our ministry to make sure we are fulfilling our mission in the most effective and Biblical manner. I would like to encourage our congregation to be in constant prayer throughout this process. We need God’s wisdom as we seek His direction for HSBC. We know our mission is founded in God’s word and so should our structure.

A Note from our Associate Pastor

Church Family,

I love that Our Mission Statement sermon series comes right from the marks of the early church structure found in Acts 2:42-47 (I mis-shared that it was verses 37-41 in the last Book of Reports). It's so important for us to understand our mission, vision, and focus as a church family to actively pursue it together in unity. It's derived and directed from God's Word for us to follow.

Praise the Lord that we have the Word of God to give direction to our lives! 2 Timothy 3:16-17 says: "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work" (EVS). In all the works that we do, we want to glorify God (1 Cor. 10:31).

Let's really focus on continuing to:

Honor God's Truth

Share the Gospel

Build Believers

Care for Others

2021, here we come!

Thank you all for the cards, gifts and prayers for Pastor Appreciation!

Following our mission statement,

Pastor Garrett

A Note from the Minister of Music

Recently, several of my newsletter articles have focused on some of the Psalms and their praise of God in worship. During this time of uncertainty as we approach the holiday season of Thanksgiving, I wish to focus on one particular psalm - #105.

From the text you can read that this psalm was written after the Exodus. The psalmist begins by saying, "Give thanks to the Lord, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done." Then the psalmist begins to list events and people that God used to fulfill the covenant He made with Abraham – the giving of Canaan to the Israelites as their own land.

As you read the text, you can imagine the upheaval and struggle that was occurring to God's people in those days and the feelings of uncertainty that they must have felt then. But, more importantly, you can read of the signs and wonders that God performed to bring about the fulfillment of His promise.

The last few verses of the psalm restate the fulfillment of God's covenant and the reason for it – "that they might keep his precepts and observe his laws."

So, even in our time of uncertainty, remember the trials God's people have faced over time and how obeying Him brought them through it.

See you in worship!
